

Subject: RE

Year group: Year 2

Term: Spring 1

Unit name: Holy Words – Why do religious people love their scripture? (Islam Focus)

Big Ideas

Pupils understand the Muslims and Christians pray to a God.

Pupils can explain who Prophet Muhammad is and why he is important to Muslims.

The Qu'ran is the holy book of Islam and guides Muslims in their daily life.

Prior learning

Pupils know special books of Muslims and Christians.

Pupils know Islamic stories learnt and understand the meanings of these stories.

Pupils know that Muslim's God is Allah

Knowledge expectations

Christianity

- To retell bible stories in detail and identify what message the story hold for Christians.
- To understand that some stories give insight into the nature of God and God's relationship with humankind.

Muslims

- To respond sensitively to the ways a Qu'ran is handled and used.
- To explain that the Qu'ran was revealed to Muhammad.
- To know how to treat the Qu'ran with respect.
- To speak thoughtfully about different reasons why religious people love their scriptures and the importance of holy writings.

Key vocabulary

Islam

Christianity

Bible

Testament

Qu'ran

Prophet Muhammad

Holy

Sacred

Special

Muslims

Scripture

Key Aspects covered

In this unit of RE work children will know:

- Why some books are special
- The key belief that there is no other God but Allah
- Why the Qu'ran is important to Muslims.
- What can be learnt from the Bible stories about God.
- To think about the difference between Bible and Qu'ran and some similarities.
- About sacred words and books.