

Subject: Geography

Year group: 1

Term: Autumn

Unit name: Weather in the UK

Diversity link:

Children can learn about where others in their class may have family living or originate from within the 7 continents.

When looking at famous people within worship, children can explore their links to the 7 continents.

Specific knowledge to be covered (linked to the National Curriculum):

Know the names of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland and locate them on a map.

Know the names of the capital cities London, Edinburgh, Cardiff, Belfast and locate them on a map.

Name and locate the 7 continents – Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe, Australia

Name and locate the 5 oceans – Pacific, Atlantic, Indian, Arctic, Southern Use simple fieldwork to record the geography of the school and surrounding area to include human and physical features.

Make simple observations of the weather and use this to make conclusions about what weather is like in the UK.

Specific teaching:

Use this song, rhymes, pictures and images to remember the 7 continents, such as

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K6DSMZ8b3LE>

Use this song, rhymes, pictures and images to remember the 7 continents, such as <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vfv7TF9RHbY>

Children will need many opportunities to learn and recall, recall, recall the factual content of this unit.

Children must be shown maps with the continents /oceans/ countries displayed on them and same map structure without the names on them and use this to help them recall the critical information.

Vocabulary:

Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe, Australia, Pacific, Atlantic, Indian, Arctic, Southern, ocean, continent, capital city, country, London, Edinburgh, Cardiff, Belfast, England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland

Prior knowledge:

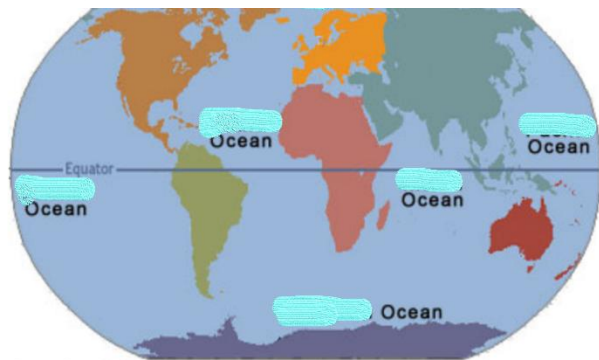

In the Early Years, children have learnt that there are different countries in the world and have talked about the similarities and differences they have seen in photographs.

Children have drawn simple maps and learnt about the area around them, including Telford, Bratton and Squirrel Meadow.

Children have looked at ariel views of simple places, such as the school.

Ocean Map of World Not to Scale

Ocean Map of World Not to Scale

's Weather Report

The thermometer says it is (degrees) Celsius

Draw what the sky looks like.

The best clothes to wear today are:

The clouds are:

white	grey	flat	this
fluffy	thick	feathery	moving fast
big	small	legged	moving slow

The precipitation is:

none	rain	snow	hail
------	------	------	------

The words feels like it is...

cold	still	warm	strong
breezy	gusty	hustery	flowy

Draw what you think the weather will be like tomorrow.