Friday 10th November 2023

Good afternoon,

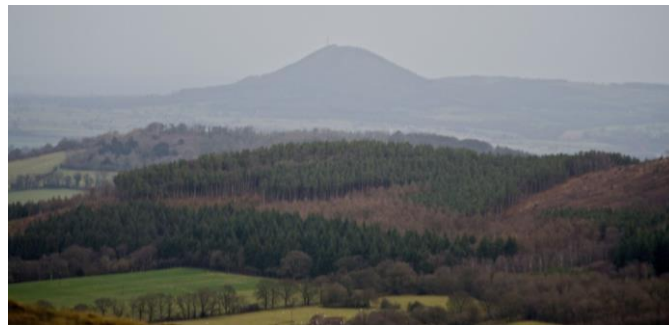

Welcome back to school- half term seems a long time ago now!

We have an exciting week next week- we have odd socks day on Monday, Children in Need on Friday and the art experience presentation in classes on Friday. Look out for more details below.

Learning conferences start next week as well.

Well done Wrekin this week- you are the house point leaders this week!

Wraparound

It is great to see that wraparound club is becoming more popular. We are struggling to appoint staff to cover our maternity posts. We have advertised on WM jobs, via word of mouth and the newsletter but we have had no applicants. The post is currently advertised again on WM jobs. The hours are 7:30-9 each morning and 3-6 after school (22.5 hours a week) plus some holiday hours. If you are interested, please contact school. It is a level 2 qualification or above.

Art experience next week

We would like parents/carers to come into school on Friday 17th November 2.45pm-3.15pm to view children's artwork. Children will be waiting in their classrooms. Please go to your usual collection point and staff will guide you into school. If you have children across the school, please be mindful of the time given to see all artwork.

Arthog

Children in year 5 will shortly be receiving a letter about Arthog which we have booked for November 2024. This initial letter is to find out if there is interest in going to Arthog. As with everything these days the cost has gone up and we are aware we are in difficult times. Please respond to the letter so we know if the trip is viable.

Great news!

We have had visitors in this week and they have complimented the children on their behaviour and their attitude to learning. They described the children as 'delightful' - which we already knew.

Well done children- you are a credit to St Peter's.

When one child was asked what they liked in school they said 'learning' which is great to hear. Another child said they enjoyed exciting work such as building volcanoes in squirrel school.

Many of the children were sharing their love of reading and school was described as being a reading school.

'X'

'X' (formerly known as twitter) on the school website is no longer updating. Since it became 'X' we can no longer link to it as we are a third party. We will be removing this from the website but you can still follow us on 'X' and by clicking the link at the top of the newsletter.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs A Martin
Acting Principal

Year 3

Outback2basics trip

We spent the day experiencing life in the Stone Age. We learnt lots of exciting facts about our ancestors. We dressed up in authentic Stone Age buckskins and furs. We also, discovered how they sharpened tools and we could hold artefacts from the Stone Age. In the afternoon, we worked in groups to make a waterproof shelter to live in the wild.

We have also started our reciprocal reading groups and have enjoyed working collaboratively. We were very excited to have our first French lessons, c'était formidable!

House points

Well done, Wrekin!

Anti bullying week

13th- 17th November

Join in by wearing odd socks on Monday 13th November

Children In Need

Friday 17th November

On Friday 17th November we will be fundraising for Children in Need.

Please wear something spotty, colourful or both to school in return for a donation to the charity. We will have a spotty envelope in each class to collect the donations.

We are also making a Pudsey Bear out of spare change as a whole school. If you have a handful of small change, please bring it in to school that day. Each class will have a chance to put their change on the Pudsey outline and work together to make a difference.

We hope to have a “spotacular” day!

Thank you in advance for your donations.
